Chandler to Head Hospital Drive For $300,000

Board of Managers of Hospital Established Headquarters at Y. M. C. A. Until Campaign Ends—With Proposed Addition, Hospital Will Accommodate 133 Patients.

Tentative plans for the enlargement and rearrangement of the Kingston City Hospital providing modern fireproof construction to replace the part of the building injured by the recent fire and providing increased accommodation for patients were submitted to the board of managers of the hospital Monday evening, and were unanimously approved by the board.

The board announced that the campaign for the $300,000, the minimum amount necessary to carry out the planned expansion, is rapidly taking form. Campaign headquarters have been established in a large section of the Y. M. C. A. building which is being given for this purpose for the duration of the campaign, and the using of prospective subscribers to the fund, and other preparatory work is already under way.

Dr. George F. Chandler was the unanimous choice of the board, at Monday's meeting, as the executive chairman of the campaign, and though a very busy man, he accepted the position, the duties of which include the organization of the teams of men and women that will do the active soliciting of funds during the ten-day period in early June set aside for this purpose, and the general supervision of the entire campaign.

Among the features included in the new plan are an additional operating room, a room for minor operations, extensions and additional facilities and equipment for maternity patients including a special blanket-warming room, and more bassinets for the babies.

The completed hospital will have accommodations for 135 patients including 14 babies, about double its present capacity which was much reduced by the fire. It will be fully equipped with the appliances demanded by modern medicine and surgery and will be fireproof throughout, the nurses' quarters which are at present much too small will be extended and facilities added so that the nurses may have the necessary comforts of an ordinary home.

The board of managers points with pride to the fact that in its entire history the hospital has appealed only twice to the general public for funds, once for the construction of the original building, and again several years ago for maintenance and repair funds.

The hospital is truly a public hospital as it has never turned away a patient because of race or creed, or for inability to pay for services. The organized appeal for the $300,000 expansion fund is made to the public in the territory that the hospital serves. It is necessary if the hospital is to keep pace with the demands of the people in this territory for hospital service, and with modern developments in surgical and medical work.

Judge James A. Betts presided at the meeting Monday, which was held in his home on Pearl street, and was fully attended by the other board members, who are Edward Cokerhall, Dr. Ervin E. Norwood, Harry H. Fleming, Dr. Alexander A. Stern, George Burgerlin, Delaney N. Matheis, Edward T. McGill and Dr. Chandler.

COUPLE UNAWARE OF MARRIAGE LICENSE SWAIL

Boston, April 27.—John E. Marshall, Jr., a Fort Johnson, N. Y., coal dealer, and Miss Ruth Strack, a silk worker of Amsterdam, N. Y., who journeyed to Cambridge for the purpose of getting married, may find their trip in vain. The decision of a Canadian judge in a divorce decree which forbids marriage during the life of his first wife is the obstacle that stands in their way.

Neither Johnson nor Miss Strack are aware of the tangle into which their romance has become entangled, for it was not until after they applied for their license and departed, leaving no address, that the city clerk discovered the bar against the union.

The happy pair are somewhere in Greater Boston awaiting the passage of the five day wait to return for their license. In the meantime New York authorities have been communicated with.

WOMAN PROSECUTED FOR TARIFF FUR CANADA

Ottawa, April 27.—Canada must not prosper by the same measure that the United States has attained prosperity—a protective tariff—declared L. W. Johnston, one of the leaders of the Canadian opposition, in a statement today.

A high tariff would check immigration from Canada to the United States, Johnston said, and he advised an increase in the duty on coal and steel and the substitution of the tariff for American anthracite as a tax.

Notional Society Meeting

There will be an important business meeting of the Notional Society tonight at 8:30 at the city hall. All members are requested to be present.

Upper Hudson Still on Rampage

Waterfront at Albany and Troy Flooded—River Navigation Delayed—Mill Dam at Warrensburg Breaks—Higher Water Predicted.

Albany, N. Y., April 27.—The Hudson and other streams fed by the melting snows of the Adirondack Mountains continued on the rampage today, sweeping away dams and bridges and tying up rail and highway traffic in many places. The property loss already will mount into the thousands and the high water has not yet reached its peak, according to experienced river men.

The Hudson at Albany is the highest it has been since the disastrous flood in 1913. Business houses along the river front are flooded and shipping services handicapped by the high waters. Boat service to Troy has been abandoned on account of the flood stage of the river and the trees and debris carried down by the torrent of water.

The city docks at Troy are under water for the first time in many years. Tugs and barges coming up the river for the opening of the barge canal next Monday have been delayed.

The dam of the Warrensburg Woolen Company at Warrensburg broke late yesterday and the mills have been forced to shut down. A bridge on the North Creek-Minerva state highway, near here, was washed away and traffic over the highway will be closed for some time.

Hope that the peak of the flood would come today was abandoned when warmer weather and rain was predicted by the weather bureau for the next 24 hours. The cold snap of the last two nights helped considerably to hold the raging waters in check.

Families living in basement apartments along lower Broadway today were forced to move into upper floors. Trucks unloading at the night boat wharves stood more than a foot deep in water.

DRY OFFICERS WERE PRESENT WHEN LIQUOR WAS UNLOADED

Boston, April 27.—Henry B. Lincoln, chairman of the Swampscott board of selectmen, and J. W. Santry, attorney for the town, will be summoned to testify for the defense, it was announced today, when the trial of Mayor William L. Quinn and 14 others, charged with violating the tariff and liquor laws in connection with the landing of liquor at Little's Point, Swampscott, near last year's summer White House, was resumed in Federal court here today.

George Macchia, former watchman at several Swampscott estates, including the summer White House, again took the witness stand and was cross-examined by the defense attorneys relative to his testimony in the summer of 1925 at the Swampscott hearing of the charges against Quinn and others.

Macchia testified that although prohibition officers were present when the liquor landings took place, they did not take any part in the unloading.

DENIES STATEMENT OF WILLIAM CLARK

Denver, Col., April 27.—Mrs. Addie Clark Miller, one of three sisters suing for a share in the estate of the late United States Senator William A. Clark, multi-millionaire Montana copper mining magnate, today denied a "death bed statement" of William Anderson Clarke, Butte, Mont., huckster, that she and her sisters were his daughters and not the daughters of Senator Clark.

"We expected a hard fight when we filed this suit," Mrs. Miller said. She added she believed the "death bed statement" to be merely a part of the effort to prevent her and her sisters from getting what "justly belongs" to them.

CELEBRATION OF FINDING OF CROSS BY ST. HELEN

Rome, April 27.—The Pope today proclaimed a special celebration of the sixteenth century of the finding of the true cross by St. Helena, the mother of Emperor Constantine. A large portion of the cross is preserved in the great Church of Santa Croce here, where special decorations will be inaugurated next Friday to continue until the end of the year. Visits to this church are among the conditions laid down for those seeking the plenary indulgence which the Pope proclaimed in connection with the observance.

AMERICAN MILLIONAIRES LEFT FIFTY MILLION

London, April 27.—Raymond Brown, eccentric American millionaire who died about his yacht at Brightlingsea some weeks ago, left a fortune of approximately fifty million dollars according to estimates for Brown's estate.

The body of the millionaire, who lived on his yacht for many years with steam up always ready to sail but never sailing, is now enroute to New York for interment.

Big National Advertiser Appreciates The Freeman

President of Kellogg Company, Makers of Kellogg Cereals. States That The Freeman is an Important Factor in Getting Business and Shows Faith by Continuing to Advertise.

Does advertising in The Freeman give results? Here is an answer to the question that has come, unsolicited, from the president of a corporation that is one of the heaviest advertisers in the country:

KELLOGG COMPANY
Battle Creek, Mich.

March 25, 1926.

The Kingston Freeman, Kingston, New York. Gentlemen:

We are taking this occasion to comment on the results we have obtained through using the advertising columns of The Freeman. We wish to congratulate you upon the splendid coverage and pulling power of your paper.

Today Kellogg's All-Bran and Pep—in fact all the Kellogg Cereals—are sold by almost every grocer in New York.

We feel that the Kingston Freeman has been an important factor in Kellogg's success in New York. For its value has never been confined to Kingston. We have felt its influence in outlying territory.

We want to express our appreciation for your cooperation in the past. We are certain the results of the advertising placed with you a few weeks ago will be most pleasing.

Very truly yours,
W. K. KELLOGG.

No higher tribute to the value and influence of The Freeman can be paid than the fact that the Kellogg Company rates it highly and uses it year after year to carry Kellogg's advertising message into Kingston homes.

The Kellogg Company is one of the country's largest advertisers and keenest merchandisers. Its opinion is all the more valuable because of long experience. Its judgment is based on results and these results speak for themselves.

The Freeman carries Kellogg's sales message into almost every home in the city. No wonder Kellogg sales show such a steady, paying increase. No wonder Kellogg's All-Bran and Pep is such a breakfast by-word in the entire Kingston territory.

No wonder the Kellogg Company is even now forwarding new advertising campaigns to The Freeman.

Governor Is Not Out of Politics $51,400 in Sight For New Theatre

May be Able to Prevent Democrats From Forcing Renomination But Is Big Figure in National Politics—Uncertainty Concerning European Trip.

Albany, April 27.—Governor Al Smith may intend to retire from state politics at the end of the present year but he has never said anything about getting out of national politics. As a matter of fact, friends of New York's chief executive feel he is destined to play a far more important part in national politics in the next two years than he ever has before.

It is considered significant that in the last six months Governor Smith has received numerous invitations to speak in all parts of the country. One of the latest of these is an invitation to go to Philadelphia on May 24 to tell the officials of that state how to put over a bond issue. The governor has accepted the invitation extended by Charles H. Frazier, head of the public charities association of Pennsylvania, to help the authorities of that state launch a campaign for a $50,000,000 bond issue for public buildings.

A report has reached the Capitol that the governor will make a six weeks' tour of Europe this summer, providing state affairs can be properly arranged.

It is known that the governor long has had a desire to visit Europe but last summer it was reported he would not make the trip until after the completion of his present term, which expires on the last day of this year.

If the governor is able to prevent the Democratic state convention from forcing a renomination upon him, as he did two years ago, some of his close friends believe he will become identified, after the first of next year, with a New York city banking institution. The governor has said, however, that he would like to go into business for himself.

If the governor does retire from state politics at the end of the present year he will have the satisfaction of knowing that virtually all the important recommendations he has made to the legislature of recent years have at last been favorably acted upon. The governor's friends feel that his fight for the reconstruction of the state government was probably the outstanding achievement of his three administrations as chief executive of the Empire State.

While the governor is playing golf for the next week at Albany, N. Y., his advisers at the Capitol are sorting out bills for him to act upon when he returns.

WOMAN KILLED LOS ANGELES IN CRUISE BOAT TEST

Lakehurst, N. J., April 27.—The U. S. Navy dirigible Los Angeles left here at 10:45 today for a test flight over Atlantic City. Cape May and Philadelphia. Captain George W. Steele was in command and expects to remain aloft for eight hours.

The Los Angeles made an excellent start today from her mooring mast.

The flight is to test the dirigible's ability to maneuver in the air.

Closing Sessions Of 69th Congress

Farm Legislation and Railroad Labor Bill Will Come Before Adjournment—Other Measures Doomed Because of Shortage of Time.

Washington, April 27.—The first session of the sixty-ninth congress will end in another month, it was learned today, with the tax reduction bill, approval of six war debt settlements, and American adherence to the world court as its outstanding achievements.

With adjournment now scheduled between May 15 and June 1, administration leaders will seek to round up the Republican legislative program by passing a farm relief measure, the $150,000,000 public buildings bill, and the railroad labor modification bill, which abolishes the U. S. Railroad Labor board in favor of court mediation tribunals.

In the background, but uncertain of enactment, will hover a coal control bill, five measures for putting new "teeth" in the Volstead Act, and a new Rivers and Harbors Appropriation Bill. All other measures are doomed to failure because of the shortage of time.

A majority of the members in both house and senate have announced they will not go home to face election campaigns—without having voted for some sort of government aid to farmers. The problem, however, has been and apparently will continue to be, the selection of a measure that will meet the approval of farm representatives. To date, the farmers themselves have not united in support of any one relief program.

The views of the majority and minor leaders of house and senate on the date of adjournment and the program in the remaining days, are as follows:

Senator Curtis of Kansas, Republican leader of the senate: "There is a general desire to adjourn congress for the middle of May. We intend to bring up some farm legislation."

Senator Robinson of Arkansas, Democratic leader of the senate: "I expect adjournment by June 1 and we will vote on farm legislation before we go home. I expect the railroad labor bill to pass if voted upon and possibly the public buildings bill, if slightly amended. Other legislation appears doubtful."

Representative Tilson of Connecticut, Republican leader of the house: "The house will be ready to adjourn May 15. In the remaining time, the house will vote on farm relief legislation, prohibition bills, possibly a coal bill and whatever legislation can be passed by unanimous consent."

Representative Garrett of Tennessee, Democratic leader of the house: "Congress will adjourn between May 15 and June 1. We will vote on farm legislation before adjournment. There may also be final action on the rivers and harbors bill. Other legislative action appears doubtful."

The drive for adjournment by June 1 at the latest will be carried out, it was said, regardless of action in the English impeachment case. The English trial, leaders said, may be postponed until fall but if held at once, congress will meet in special session for the judicial proceedings.

MISSING LEPER BELIEVED IN N. Y.

Ludlow, Mass., April 27.—Mrs. Antonia Ramos, pronounced by physicians as a victim of leprosy, is believed to be in the Portuguese Colony in New York after fleeing from her home here while unguarded.

The woman expected to be sent to the federal leper colony in Louisiana over her expressed desire to return to her native land.

Doubting the diagnosis of local physicians, the woman slipped away from her home, boarded a train, mingling with other passengers, planning to consult a Portuguese physician in New York.

DIES OF CARBON MONOXIDE POISONING

Chicago, April 27.—Sigmund S. Deutsch, president of the bond house of Deutsch & Co., is dead here today, a victim, according to physicians, of carbon monoxide poisoning.

Coroner Wolf has started an investigation. Deutsch was found unconscious on the floor of his garage late last night and died at a hospital.

ARGENTINE ACQUITS LEAGUES INVITATION

Geneva, April 27.—The Argentine Republic has notified the League of Nations of its acceptance of the invitation to attend the preliminary disarmament conference, and also the conference of reorganization of the league council.

The Argentine has also notified the league that it can not join that organization until the Argentine congress approves.

Police Village Wiped Out

London, April 27.—A snow and ice has practically wiped out the village of Murrumbidgee, according to a Geneva dispatch to the Central News.

Peace Conference

Official, Geneva, April 27.—The first official session of the Franco-Spanish 1919 peace conference opened here this morning at 2 o'clock.

Crispell to Have Mental Exam

Youth Accused of Two Crimes With In Short Time to Undergo Examination to Determine if Mind Has Criminal Tendency—Allen Gun Toter Pleads Guilty.

In the Ulster county court Monday afternoon, imposition of sentence was suspended in the case of Peter Abramowitz of Wawarsing on his plea to possessing fire arms without a license. Defendant, who is an alien, has made application to the Conservation Commission, for permission to have fire arms in his home. Under the law no alien has the right to possess guns without having first secured permission. Abramowitz, who was represented in county court Monday afternoon by Lefley Lounsbury, did not know it was necessary to secure a permit until after State Troopers had arrested him on a charge of possession without the necessary permit.

Jesse Crispell, who last February entered a plea of guilty to grand larceny, second degree, in stealing a car for the purpose of a joy ride, again appeared before County Judge Fowler. Crispell was recently arrested on a charge of taking a motorcycle for the purpose of joy riding. The police took him in custody and in city court his case was adjourned until Saturday. In the meantime he was placed in jail. When he entered a plea of guilty to grand larceny, second degree, last February, he was sentenced to Elmira Reformatory but on his promise to make good sentence was suspended. The present attitude of the city officials is now to have the suspended sentence to Elmira put into effect. Before passing on his case Judge Fowler stated that he desired to have the boy examined by Dr. Palmer to determine if his mind was of a criminal trend.

Two charges in so short a time led the court to seek an examination before enforcing the suspended sentence. The case was adjourned until Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock and in the meantime an examination will be made to determine if Elmira is a suitable place to send the defendant.

ALCOHOLICS EXPORTED FROM CANADA TO U. S.

Ottawa, April 27.—More than seventeen million dollars worth of alcoholics were legally exported from Canada to the United States between March 1, 1925, and March 1, 1926, according to figures published today by the bureau of statistics.

Legal exports of spirits and beer passing through the Canadian customs during this period were valued at $17,935,758, as compared with $11,494,859 during the same months in the previous year.

During the twelve months ending March 1, 1926, there were 3,749,741 gallons of ale and beer and 794,621 gallons of whiskey legally exported to the United States.

Those in close touch with the rum-running situation claim that fully as much liquor is exported illegally as is sent out of the country legally. Liquor shipped as "balled hay" is still leaving Canada for American destinations, despite the cooperative efforts of American and Canadian officials.

CERTIFICATES FILED UNDER BUSINESS LAW

Certificates under the assumed name business law have been filed with the Ulster county clerk that the parties named are conducting business as follows:

N. G. Jim, Lee Cheung, Harry NG, Willie Chun, N. G. Chin and N. G. Hong, at 257 Wall street, Kingston, a business under the name and style, "King Sun Lo Restaurant."

George A. Reynolds and Gerald B. Reynolds, a business under the name "Woodstock Market," Woodstock.

August Wunder, 63 Broadway, a business under name "Gus, the Florist," Kingston.

TWO WORKMEN KILLED ON CHRISTIAN SCIENCE HOME

Concord, N. H., April 27.—One man was killed and another probably fatally injured today as they were riding thirty feet above the ground on a concrete tower which was being set in place on the new Christian Science Home on the Mary Baker Eddy estate here. The cable broke and the men were hurled to the ground.

Archie Gochaine of Fitchburg, Mass., was instantly killed and his companion, Arceide Lesner, also of Massachusetts, was seriously injured. The men were employed by the E. H. Wood Construction Company of Worcester, Mass.

CLERGYMAN AND WIFE ESCAPE FROM HOTEL FIRE

Boston, April 27.—Fire in the suite of the Rev. Paul Rogers Frothingham, prominent Unitarian pastor, on the sixth floor of Hotel Touraine, caused considerable excitement today.

The clergyman and his wife escaped and the flames were confined to his suite.

Smoke flooded the hotel but other guests did not leave the building.

U. S. Delegation Arrives

Geneva, April 27.—The preparatory commission of the economic conference met today and considered questions of production, tariff and labor. Although 174 American delegates attended the session they did not participate in the discussion.

P. O. Inspector Seeks Port Ewen Poison Pen Writer

Inspector Dix of Post Office Department Investigates Scurrilous Letters Mailed Judge McKenzie and Members of His Household.

For a long time some trouble maker has been busy sending scurrilous letters and postals through the mails to Judge Henry E. McKenzie of Port Ewen and the members of his household. It is said that fifty expressions were written on the outside of the envelopes, and invariably the envelopes were opened at one end so that other persons could, if so inclined, read the contents.

The matter was called to the attention of the post office authorities and on Monday Inspector Dix of the post office department was in Port Ewen and called on Judge McKenzie and talked over the matter and then the inspector made a thorough investigation of the case.

It is said that Inspector Dix at the close of his investigation was convinced that a certain party living in Port Ewen was the writer of the epistles, and further unwelcome developments are expected, as it is a violation of the federal laws to send scurrilous matter through the mails.

BOSTON CITY COUNCIL CHARGED WITH GRAFTING

Boston, April 27.—As a result of sensational charges of grafting by members of the Boston city council, an investigation is now under way by the state attorney general's office.

The failure of the Suffolk county district attorney's office to trap the alleged "bagman" after Leo J. Conway of Forest Hills complained that he had been held up for $3,200 on his application for a bus line permit, resulted in his taking the case to Attorney General Jay R. Denton.

According to Conway's charges, an ex-representative acting as bagman told him he would have to pay $3,200 for a permit to operate eight buses between Boston and Nantasket. It developed in the talk between them, according to Conway, that the set rate for bus permits was $400 per machine.

AGED SPY BEGINS SEVEN YEARS SENTENCE

Moscow, April 27.—Anna Serer-brakova, totally blind and more than seventy years old, today began a term of seven years of solitary confinement for espionage.

Anna, who was known as the "grandmother of the spies," is alleged to have served both the Czarist and the Revolutionary cause, playing one against the other.

Although she emphatically denied that she had engaged in espionage for the past nine years, she made a secret statement to the court, which it is believed may lead to startling disclosures.

The aged spy was condemned to death but her sentence was commuted.

PLANS AERIAL TRIP AROUND THE WORLD

Rome, April 27.—The Marquis De Pinedo, who last year accomplished an aeroplane flight from Rome to Tokio and return, will start on an aerial argosy around the world in July, it was announced today.

De Pinedo will fly from Rome to Dakar in Africa, thence to South America, northward to the United States and Alaska, then across the Bering Straits to Kamchatka, to Japan, India, Aden and Rome.

Signor Campanelli, who accompanied De Pinedo on his flight to Tokio, has left for Buenos Aires to organize a flight from Buenos Aires to New York and to pave the way for De Pinedo.

Planning Great Spa at Saratoga

Health Resort Second To None In Plan—Supt. J. G. Jones Tells of What Yet Remains to Be Done to Complete Development.

Albany, April 27.—An outline of the plans to establish on the State Reservation at Saratoga Springs the largest cure centre in the United States and the equal of any of the famous European Spas was given by John G. Jones of the Conservation Commission, superintendent of the reservation in a recent radio talk. He said:

"Today, the state reservation at Saratoga comprises about 800 acres of land, which is divided into three beautiful parks: High Rock, Lincoln and Geyser. On this reservation are located practically all of the naturally mineralized and naturally carbonated waters of the Saratoga region.

Well designed structures are provided at the more important springs where people can obtain the mineral waters at the fountain-head. Special processes have been perfected for the serving of the various medicinal waters to the public in an absolutely natural state, without even a hint of artificiality. With this work under way, the commission turned its attention to the development and use of the waters for bathing purposes. It realized that no health resort, based upon the use of mineral waters, could be complete which did not provide for the administration of the mineral waters externally as well as internally. The bath houses on the reservation, three in number, were found to be unsuitable for scientific work and after investigation and considerable research work, the commission made a complete rearrangement of its bath establishments. Today, the state in its Lincoln Park has two modern bath houses, the Lincoln and Washington, complete with the most modern equipment for the scientific administration of carbonated mineral baths and the giving of other forms of hydrotherapeutic treatments.

"The mineral water, steam and electric power required in the various treatments given here are supplied from a thoroughly modern and efficient power plant located on the same tract. On this tract, also, is one of the most efficient and attractive flat work laundries to be found anywhere, assuring a constant and never failing supply of clean and thoroughly white linen to the various departments of the bath houses. "All of these are set in the midst of six acres of well kept lawns, dotted with shrubbery and intersected by paths and drives for the convenience and pleasure of the patrons, and the whole tract is backed by a luxuriant growth of pines and other evergreen trees, making in all a delightful place in which to recover one's health and vigor.

"The combined capacity of the bath houses operated by the state at Saratoga Springs equals 2,200 treatments per day, and with the additions which are anticipated during the coming year this maximum capacity will be increased to approximately 4,000 treatments daily.

"With the completion of the work in Lincoln Park, the state will have completed the first step as outlined in its plan for the development of the reservation. The commission believed that the great mass of people of moderate means should be the first care of the state and to that end has devoted its efforts up to the present time.

"The next step in the state's plan will be the development of its property in the city, of a modern well equipped bath house combined with a drink hall or Kur-Haus, and the parking of the property surrounding it. This development will serve a class of people entirely distinct from that which now patronizes the Washington and Lincoln baths. The style of architecture will be more elaborate and the interior appointments and equipment for the administration of the treatments more luxurious. The bath establishment will be so arranged that it will serve winter as well as summer patients, and will contain the administrative offices of the division. It is expected that complete plans, specifications and estimates will be made for this development this year and the money appropriated for the carrying on of the work in 1927. During the year 1927, if funds are provided detailed plans will be made for the next and last step in the development which will be the erection of a combined hotel and sanitarium directly connected to a magnificent bath house, located in Geyser Park on the plateau overlooking the Vale of Springs. Connected with and under the same plan will be erected semi-detached cottages for patrons who do not desire to live in the hotel atmosphere. For the pleasure of the guests of the hotel and sanitarium, tennis courts and golf courses will be laid out. Beautiful Geyser Park will be landscaped and provisions made for all forms of winter sports—skiing, snow shoeing, tobogganing and skating. Fans to carry on these last two steps of the program are to come from the 100 million dollar bond issue recently approved by the people, and should be made available to start this work in the year 1928, which when completed will bring to its conclusion the development of the state's health resort at Saratoga Springs.

"A recent meeting of the New York State Medical Society unanimously endorsed the state's health resort at Saratoga Springs, stating that the Conservation Commission's work at Saratoga is meeting with the approval of the medical fraternity. Nothing of greater importance than this endorsement has transpired since the state obtained control of the Saratoga mineral waters.

"If the plans are carried out as outlined, the combined facilities of the three steps of the development—Lincoln Park, Saratoga City and Geyser—will enable the state to take care of from five to six thousand patients daily and make Saratoga Springs the largest cure centre in the United States and the equal of any in Europe.

"The location of the state's health

Two Meetings For Dairymen

Members of the Ulster County Farm Bureau Improvement Association and Club are to hold two important meetings on Wednesday and Thursday evenings of this week. The first meeting will be held at the Gardner Central Cooperative at Gardiner on Wednesday evening, April 28, at 8 o'clock. Professor G. W. Talbot of Cornell, state supervisor of dairy associations, will be on the program with a talk on "Pasture feeding for best returns." Records of Association and Club members will be reviewed and all questions and problems regarding the work made clear. Association Tester R. B. Staples and Bureau Manager Wigsten will also attend and have a part on the program. The meeting on Thursday will be at the court house at 7:30 o'clock, standard time. A program very similar to Wednesday evening's will be followed. All dairymen are urged to be on hand for one of these meetings. Those interested in becoming members of either the Association or the Club can now be accommodated as vacancies have occurred during the past month owing to members having sold their farms.

Gets Inoculation For Legumes

The usual supply of legume inoculation has been received at Farm Bureau headquarters for distribution to members. Requests for it are coming in rapidly, proving that farmers believe in its use and are using it more plentifully this spring than heretofore. The State College recommends it to be a cheap form of insurance and should always be applied to the seed when planting alfalfa, sweet clover, Canadian field peas, soy beans, vetch and other nitrogen fixing legumes. The cost of the material is 25 cents a can, one can being sufficient to inoculate seed for one acre. Application of the inoculation is a very simple matter, completed directions being printed on each package. Over 150 packages have been distributed during April. All kinds are kept on hand at the Farm Bureau office and will be promptly mailed on request.

resort at Saratoga Springs in ideal, both from a health and recreational standpoint. It is built around the most wonderful group of mineral water springs in the world, the supply being almost inexhaustible, and having a greater carbonic acid content than any of the waters of the other well known resorts of the United States and Europe. The climate is ideal for people seeking health, and the surrounding country affords every facility for those who wish to combine health and recreation. Spectacular roads radiate in every direction to points of scenic and historic interest.

"When the state's work is completed at Saratoga Springs, it will offer to the people of the United States, as well as foreign countries, a health resort second to none in the known world."

Annual Senior Play a Success

"The Goose Hangs High" Pleased
Large Audience—Pupils Congratulated on Way in Which They Took Leading Parts.

Members of the Senior Class of Kingston High School delighted a large audience Friday night with the presentation of the Senior play, "The Goose Hangs High," by Lewis Beach. The theme of the play was a portrayal of the spirit of the modern jazz age. There has been considerable discussion concerning the character of our modern youth. Many believe them callous, hard, indifferent to love and sacrifice of their parents and desiring only a mad world of pleasure. Lewis Beach in his popular drama seeks to disprove this mistaken conception of the younger generation.

Bradley and Lois Ingals home from college for the holidays plunge into a round of gaiety while unknown to them their parents, Bernard and Eunice Ingals, are facing a great crisis. Leo Day and Elliott Kimberly, under whose direction Bernard as assessor is placed, try to bend him to their methods of graft. He is faced with the alternative of either complying with their wishes or resigning. After a heated discussion with Kimberly he sends in his resignation. It is at this crucial moment that the twins and their older brother, Hugh, prove that they are trumps. Hugh is willing to give up his dream of marrying Dagmar, his fiancée, to help his parents, but the twins wedge Granny into settling their father up in business, thus making Hugh's sacrifice unnecessary.

Glady's Castor in the role of Granny delighted her audience with her interpretation of the part of an aristocratic, crisp old lady, impatient of the manners or lack of manners of her grandchildren. Her role was very well sustained throughout the play and she was most convincing in this very difficult part.

Victor Johnson as Bradley gave a satisfying interpretation of the young, cock-sure, chap from college with numerous radical ideas and the confidence that he is capable of meeting any situation. There was a delightful abandon and freshness in his part that could come only from a complete absorption of the actor in his role. Dorothy Canzitta as the other twin also did excellent work in creating the atmosphere of spontaneity life and reality. Her's was the part of a young girl loving the rush and whirl of social life but at the same time caring still more for the happiness of her dear ones.

Pierson Phelps had the role of Bernard, the loving, good natured father. Dorothy MacFadden portrayed Eunice, the sweet, unselfish mother. Both were successful in the difficult work of providing the deeper element of more mature love and feeling.

Newton Millham and Helen Strickland had the difficult parts of the young engaged couple bringing the romantic element without being self-conscious, a difficult achievement for high school students.

The rest of the cast showed a careful study and thoughtful interpretation of their respective roles. Martin Spiegel and Addison Schultz were very realistic in the parts of the unscrupulous bull-dozing politicians, very distasteful to a family so refined as the Ingals. Katherine Bailey as Aunt Julia and Willard Sahloff as the faithful Roland did very creditable work. Addison Van Wageningen as the reliable, old family friend of Helen Brigham as Rhoda, the maid, also did good work.

The major share of the credit for the success of the play belongs to Miss Madeline Tarrant, coach of the play, who spent long hours and a great deal of energy in the direction of the play. The play was particularly unique in that it lacked confusion of stage business that so often attends amateur work. At all times the action ran smoothly and the stage grouping and setting presented a pleasing picture. Miss Tarrant is to be congratulated on the results of her work. The music was furnished by a group of high school boys who rendered a pleasing program.

Tried to Kidnap Them, Say Women

Three Men in Automobile Chased Three Women on Road Near Stony Hollow. According to Complaint Made at Sheriff's Office.

The sheriff's office was asked Monday evening to investigate an attempted kidnapping at Stony Hollow. According to the story told by Jettie Beth Jocelyn it was about 9 o'clock when Mrs. John Hopkins who resides near the top of the Stony Hollow hill decided to go to a neighbor's for a call.

Two other women who were stopping with her accompanied her and when a short distance from their home a new Overland car in which three men were riding drew up alongside them and stopped. One of the men asked the women if they were going to Kingston and when told they were not going to Kingston, one of the men replied that they were. Immediately three men jumped out of the car and started after the three women.

According to the story told the authorities the three men chased the women back up the road and to their door before they stopped. The women screamed and shouted for assistance, claiming that two cars passing refused to stop.

Mr. Hopkins, who was not at home, was notified and immediately came home and brought the women to Kingston where the affair was reported to the authorities.

After chasing the three women to the house, the men remained about the place for fully five minutes before driving away. The car was stopped just around the turn in the road on the hill. No description of the men or the number of the car was furnished which could aid the authorities in locating the men.

The men according to the women were not youths but men of mature years.

Dismiss Claims Against Mexico

Rejection of American Claims Arising Out of Santa Isabel Massacre May Lead to U. S. Withdrawal—Dr. Octavio May Not Sit at Next Meeting

Mexico City, April 27.—Intimation that the mixed claims commission's rejection of the American claims, arising out of the Santa Isabel massacre, might lead to American withdrawal of diplomatic relations with Mexico was made today by Judge Ernest B. Perry, American member who refused to accept the commission's decision.

Judge Perry declared that the United States will not accept the decision by which more than $600,000, in American claims against revolutionary Mexico are dismissed.

Judge Perry asserted that future claims rested with Secretary of State Kellogg.

The Santa Isabel claims amounted to $1,225,000 and were for damages arising out of the slaying of fifteen American mining engineers by the Villa forces in 1916. The case was one of a series of similar claims, and its dismissal automatically nullifies all the others.

Judge Perry charged in court that the decision was utterly at variance with the facts as contained in the records and was completely repugnant to international law.

Harvey Bannum, legal advisor of the American embassy, presented instructions from the state department at Washington reserving the right to reopen the case on the ground of error of law.

Judge Perry said this morning that the decision would have to stand because under the rules any conclusion reached by two of the commissioners must be made the decision of the commission. He, however, would not sign, he said.

It is understood that the commission will sit again in September, possibly with the definite understanding that both Mexico and the United States consider Dr. Rodrigo Octavio de la Huerta, umpire of the commission, physically incapacitated and demand his resignation. Dr. Octavio has been suffering recently from ill health and in several occasions it was reported that he was on the point of resigning of his own accord.

BETTY IS LED FROM COURT ROOM IN TEARS

London, April 27.—Betty Blythe acted a dramatic scene in the Kings Bench Division of the Law Courts today, during the hearing of her suit against G. B. Samuelson, British film producer, for salary and damages which she claims due.

While a witness was describing her battles with Samuelson's studio effects in Berlin, Betty interrupted with excited remarks and finally was led from the court room in tears.

Press Comments On German Treaty

Berlin, April 27.—A warning to western statesmen that Germany is determined not to be used as a battering ram against Russia, was the comment of the Nationalist press today upon the Russo-Germany neutrality treaty.

The Nationalist organs hail the treaty as "an efficient antidote against the Locarno disease."

The Democratic Press, however, was unanimous in describing the treaty as an extension of the national efforts for peace and entirely consistent with the aims of Locarno.

The Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, hinting at the possibility of Germany becoming Russia's bulwark against the western powers, said:

"Blinding ourselves to oppose this Anti-Russian stand of the League of Nations is a great concession to Russia and a ticklish obligation, possibly entailing unforeseen consequences."

Fear Outbreaks In Jersey Town

Police Patrol "The Jungle" of Carver and Establish a Dead Line—Many Negroes Slipping Out of Town.

Carver, N. J., April 27.—Armed policemen patrolled "The Jungle," the negro section of this city, today to avert possible outbreaks of violence between whites and negroes.

Feeling was running high and the authorities were taking no chances on bloodshed. Yesterday a negro church was burned, its congregation stoned and more than 100 negro families were driven from town by white men, some armed with clubs and masked.

A "dead line" between the negro and white sections was established by police today. Every inhabitant of the negro section, which is five blocks long and two blocks wide, has taken to cover.

The trouble started after the murder Sunday morning of Johnny Carroll, a pugilist, who was stabbed to death by negroes. Ralph Johnson, a friend of Carroll's, also a white man, was slashed in the abdomen by the same men and badly wounded.

White men stood in knots in various parts of town today discussing "the negro problem." Not a negro could be seen on the streets. Every house in the negro district was dark last night.

For hours negroes have been slipping out of town. Most of those remaining are planning to leave, it was said.

Shortly after midnight an attack was made on the home of James McDougall, political leader of the negroes here, but was repulsed by policemen who swung their night clubs.

Groups of white men paraded the streets during the night looking for negroes.

The city's entire police force of twenty-five men are on duty to prevent possible rioting.

Mayor Thomas Mulvihill has issued orders that all disorders be promptly suppressed.

Protection was promised all negroes by Prosecutor John Toolan, of Middlesex county, but no colored people are venturing out of doors.

Port Ewen, April 27.—A poverty dance will be held in Pythian Hall on Thursday evening, April 29.

The Dorcas Society will meet this evening at the home of Miss Bertha Siebert on Broadway. Miss Lizzie Ellsworth and Miss Siebert are the hostesses for the evening.

The Ever Ready Club will present a three act play entitled "Soprano's Wedding" in the Methodist Church House on Friday evening, April 30. This is a real play, two hours long. Children are out selling tickets, and it is hoped every one interested in this society and the Epworth League will at least purchase a ticket. Proceeds for the benefit of both societies.

Mrs. D. Marquart and son, Edward Marquart of Rhinebeck, called on Mr. and Mrs. Nina W. Perriac on Broadway on Sunday.

Mrs. Lillie Smith of Salem street is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Louis Berres in Kingston.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Monahan of Steubenville and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fallon of Broadway returned to Philadelphia, N. J., Sunday to visit Richard Terpening, who has been confined in the hospital for two months, with an injury received in an automobile accident. They found him improving and they expect to bring him to his home in Steubenville some day this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Voss of Conestoga spent Monday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schmeckel on Salem street.

The Dorcas Society will meet Tuesday evening, April 27, at Mrs. Bertha Siebert. Miss Siebert and Miss Ellsworth will be the hostesses.

Final Efforts to Raise the S-51

Newport, R. I., April 27.—Five ships carrying twenty officers and 200 men stood above the grave of the United States Submarine S-51 off Block Island today and began preparations to make a final effort to raise the undersea boat.

The S-51 was rammed and sunk last September by the Steamship City of Rome with a loss of 32 lives and imprisoned in the sunken craft are the bodies of twenty men.

Ten pontoons will be used in the attempt to raise the S-51 and when the ill-fated craft is brought to the surface she will be towed to Brooklyn, N. Y., navy yard before being opened.

Naval experts and a specially drilled class of naval deep sea divers were engaged in starting the work of salvage today.

They went to the scene of the disaster, according to word received at the local station, from the submarine base at New London, Conn.

From this port was towed one of the ten pontoons. The ships at the ocean graveyard are the repair ship Vestal, the Mine Ship Falcon and the ocean going tugs Tenabasco, Sagamore and Inka.

Progress regarding the work of salvage, it was stated here, will be sent to New London headquarters by radio and made public there.

Work of raising the submarine had to be abandoned last fall because of adverse weather conditions. With the approach of warm weather and a calm sea, naval experts hope to bring the S-51 to the surface.

A squad of divers this winter were given a course at Philadelphia. After the drift from the sea bottom is removed from the S-51, heavy cables will be placed under her by divers. Pontoons will be lowered and when attached the pontoons will be filled with air, with the expectation that they will immediately raise the sunken ship.

Syndicate Buys White Star Line

General Merger of British Shipping Lines May Result in Sale of White Star Line—May Dispose of Red Star Fleet.

London, April 27.—A general merger of British shipping lines may result from the tentative sale of the White Star Line, by the International Mercantile Marine, to a British syndicate, it was reported today.

Following mergers of Japanese and German shipping concerns it is believed that it will be necessary for British interests to consolidate in order to compete for seaborne commerce.

Furness, Withy & Company are understood to be the largest backers of the new syndicate, arranging to take over the White Star Line.

New York, April 27.—A provisional agreement has been reached for the sale of the White Star Line to a British syndicate headed by Furness, Withy & Company, Ltd., it was announced today by Morgan, Grenfell & Company, and P. A. S. Franklin, president of the International Mercantile Marine Company. The sales price is understood to be $34,450,000 at present exchange rates.

The proposed sale may be followed by the disposal of the Red Star Fleet in the near future to foreign interests, it was indicated, with the intent of Americanizing the International Mercantile Marine Company by acquiring ships of American registry.

AMERICAN FALSE TEETH VERY POPULAR ABROAD

Washington, April 27.—American "store teeth" have a popular appeal abroad.

Figures published today by the Department of Commerce show that artificial teeth valued at $311,371 were exported by parcel post in 1925, a gain of nearly $300,000 from the year before.

American false teeth are said to be the strongest in the world, and with proper jaw power applied are guaranteed to successfully masticate anything short of pie iron.

Within a few years, officials said, the United States should have a monopoly on the false teeth markets abroad.

SERIOUS SITUATION BETWEEN MEXICO AND U. S.

Washington, April 27.—While suggestions of an open rupture between the United States and Mexico over the Santa Isabel claims were discounted in official circles here today, it was admitted that a serious situation has arisen owing to the claims commission incident.

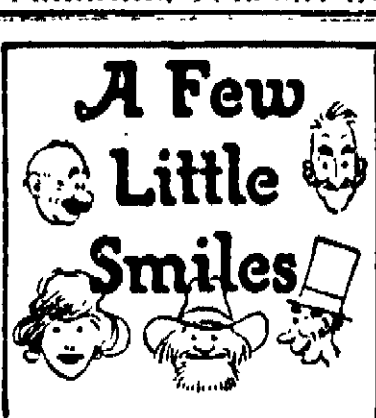

Dispatches from Mexico City reported that the claims had been dissolved by the Mexican and Brazilian members of the commission, and Judge E. B. Perry's threatened inference of collusion having been practiced, caused considerable astonishment at the state department.

French Paying on Account.

London, April 27.—The twenty million dollars that France has agreed to pay Great Britain this year is shortly on account, and has on hearing on day future negotiations for the settlement of the French debt to Great Britain, it was announced today.

SCOTTY'S PLAN

Two Scotchmen had planned a hike into the country and had agreed to meet at a certain place at five in the morning. Only one of them owned an alarm clock, but he finally hit on a solution of rousing the other.

"Mac," he said, "when the clock goes off I'll get up and ring ye on a public telephone. But, be sure and don't answer it, so I can get my nickel back."

"We now have several varieties," said the druggist. "Is this for children?"

"Yes."

"Do you wish to use it as a medicine or as a punishment?"

A Better Talker

"And now, children, what do you suppose Balaam did when he returned home?"

"I guess I know, teacher."

"Well, Robert?"

"He told off the ass for a parrot."

ENVY

Envious Bug—Oh, shucks, why haven't I got a lot of arms so I can be a great juggler like Mr. Spider?

Jealous

Because he was plucky Successful was he: But when his friends told it They left off the "p."

Rather Unreliable

Muggins—Harduppe assures me that he will square up his account with me next Saturday. Is he good at keeping a promise?

Ruggins—That fellow couldn't keep a promise in a safe deposit vault.

Not in Evidence

Marion—Has Helen's child any music in her?

George—She ought to have, considering we haven't heard any come out yet.

Compulsory

May—Do you always acknowledge it when you are wrong?

Jack—No. Only when other people know it.—Tim Rits.

A Strong Case

Judge—What is your complaint against the defendant?

Plaintiff—Your honor, she called me a fool, and I have witnesses to prove it.

Something

May—I can't stand that Simonson girl. She is always spinning yarns.

June—Yes, but she generally loses the thread before she gets to the end.

Historic

Outrigger—I have here an original joke which I—

Editor—My dear man, you don't look that old.—Columbia Jester.

Match Consumption

If all the matches used by the average person in a period of fifty years could be made into one ball, it would be a ball of fire and would be a ball of fire and would be a ball of fire.

SUCH IS FAME

Bernard Shaw was hurrying to Enslace Miles' restaurant one day when he heard an interesting bit of talk behind him.

"See that bloke?"

"Old red whiskers? 'Oo is 'e?"

"Shaw."

"Shaw?"

"The great vegetarian eater."

"Go on!"

"Fact."

A Noisy Name

Mrs. Johnson—Ah thought you all said you was going to name your new baby Victoria, but Ah hears you-all done make a change.

Mrs. Moses—Yes, Ah expected it would be a girl an' Ah had decided to name her Victoria, but she turned out to be a boy, so Ah done name him Radio.—Christian Advocate.

Dear Little Bluebelle

"Darling," asked mother, "why must you remain at a dance until three in the morning?"

"Well, you see, mother," explained Bluebelle patiently, "we didn't start the dance until eleven."

"Couldn't you start at eight?"

"I don't suppose anybody ever thought of that."

A "Knotty" Problem

"Is dis der Bettendorf Lumber company?"

"Yes, it's the city desk, Mr. Smallhaus talking."

"Well, I want some lumber, ya lumber—Heine, Heine, ya, Heine Klotz—ya, same lumber rot I got last January. 'Vat kind vas it?' Vel, it is the same kind vat I want now."

Out of Date

"I'd like to go back to the old farm and see the barn, with its great hay-mow, again," said he to the visitor from back home.

"Barn? Haymow? Where do you get that stuff?" exclaimed his visitor. "What a farmer has now is a garage, not a barn, and a 50-gallon tank of gas on the outside, not a haymow."

NO MATCH FOR HER

Conductor—Do you know this is the smoking car, Miss?

Flap (producing cigarette)—Certainly—have you a match for me?

Conductor—No, Miss, I think not.

The G. H.

The ground hog, from my very heart, I speak of in regret.

In real work he plays no part And never makes a pet.

Why He Gave Her Ago

Elderly Sister—Don't you know better than to go telling everybody how much older I am than you are?

Little Brother (indignantly)—I have to, else people would think you were my mother.

Doubtful Discipline

"How's the new jail?"

"Mighty handsome an' commodious," answered Cactus Joe. "The fact is, it's so comfortable we're thinkin' of offerin' a week's board in it as a premium for good behavior."

Not at All

Mistress—I hear you're rather friendly with the milkman, Emma. Is he serious?

Emma—Serious? Oh, no, ma'am! 'E's one of the joky sort!

Day of Variety

Grandma—People don't seem to marry as young as they did when I was a girl.

Grandfather—No, old dear, but they do it oftener.

THE POUTED PIGEON

"Look, Bill, that fellow must have swallowed a toy balloon."

Casual Observation

Investigation is being made of mind intention.

Yer seldom show a thing That makes much difference.

Careful Barber

"I'll have a shave but no tonic or shampoo or shine or shoe shine."

"Yes, sir, may I see a towel on you, sir?"

She Meant It

"I will find means to make you love me."

"If you have means, I will love you."

—Kisses Whirlwind, Vienna.

Boy in Murder Case Released

Had Been Held in Connection With Murder of Two Elderly Spinners, for Which City as Companion Is Serving Life Sentence.

Nashua, N. H., April 27.—Charles LeFebvre, fifteen-year-old chore boy, held in Manchester for a fortnight in connection with the brutal slaying last July of Mrs. Georgeanna and Helen Gibbs, elderly Hudson spinners, was released in $2,000 bail today by Judge J. C. A. Young.

The boy's cousin, Louis, LeFebvre, 21, was found guilty of murder and is serving a life term in state prison at Concord.

The mother of Charles could hardly believe her eyes and fainted when the boy came home today.

The mother, father and brother of Charles did not know of the efforts made to get him out of the reformatory by Attorney Timothy F. O'Gorman.

Judge Young gave the lad his release for an indefinite period, or until his case can be tried.

According to testimony at the trial of LeFebvre, the Gibbs sisters, who had befriended both boys, were struck down from behind by heavy pieces of wood and died instantly. Some money was taken but, according to the testimony, young LeFebvre, who was a chore boy for the sisters, had hoped to benefit quickly under their will.

Few More Chairs Needed.

There is still a need of two or three small rockers or comfortable chairs, not upholstered, for the Industrial Home. If there are any friends of the Industrial Home who can help out in this matter they are asked to telephone 1418, and arrange to have them made for their being delivered at the Industrial Home on East Chester street.

Long Distance Reconciliation

After having twice sued him for divorce, only to forgive him, Elise Bartlett Schildkraut, filed the third suit in Baltimore, declaring she never wanted to see her actor-husband, Joseph Schildkraut. But Schildkraut, spending $6.40 a minute, a total of $675, called her up in New York, from Los Angeles, and persuaded her to change her mind again. Their third reunion followed.

Eopous, April 27.—Mrs. Amy E. Sholey, wife of the late W. H. Sholey, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Alex Smith of Eopous on Friday, April 23, after a lingering illness. She had been a resident of Eopous for thirty-five years and was a loyal and earnest worker in the Methodist Church and was one of the oldest members of the Ladies' Aid Society. Funeral was held from the Eopous M. E. Church Monday, April 26, with a large attendance of friends and neighbors. She is survived by two sisters, Abbie Little of Delhi, N. Y., and Phoebe McLean of Broadhead. Also five children, James B. and Mary Smith of Eopous, Leo of Newburgh, Nellie, wife of Frank Cole of Hudson Heights, N. J., and Mrs. Alberta Baker of Jersey City, N. J.

The funeral of Mary Sheridan, widow of Patrick Sheridan, was held this morning at 9 o'clock from the late home, 101 East Chester street, and 9:20 o'clock from St. Mary's Church, where a high Mass of requiem was offered for the repose of her soul by the Rev. Thomas Sanderson. Seated in the sanctuary was the Rev. Thomas P. Larkin. The Rosary Society, of which Mrs. Sheridan was a member, acted as honorary escorts. At the offertory of the Mass, Thomas Dolan sang very feelingly "The Jesus" and at the conclusion "The Beautiful Land on High." The floral tributes were profuse and very beautiful and there were a number of Mass cards in the form of spiritual bouquets. The bearers were Luke Sheehy, Jack McAndrew, Edward Albrecht, Harry Matthews, Michael Broaders and James McAndrew. The Rev. Father Sanderson and Larkin accompanied the remains to St. Mary's Cemetery and pronounced the final absolution.

IN MEMORIAM.

In remembrance of Herman R. Brown, who departed this life April 27, 1925:

Dearest father, thou hast left us, but thy love is deeply felt. But it is God that has bereft us. We can all our sorrows heal.

Yet still we hope to meet thee. When the day of life is full. When in Heaven to joy to meet thee.

Where no sorrowful tear is shed.
MRS. HERNAN RENZI
and FAMILY.

Financial and Commercial

New York, April 27.—Industrial stocks floated around the market today with little or no momentum excepting the usual professional activities, which were largely confined to the speculative leaders. There was considerable profit-taking to be completed in the early trading, and prices moved off sharply when offerings crowded the market. As soon as liquidation had been completed prices displayed a firmer trend and some of the specialty stocks resumed their rallies.

The most interesting development in the money market today was in time loans, where the bid rate declined to 3 1/2 per cent. Call money was a little firmer and ruled at 3 1/2 per cent, against 3 per cent yesterday.

The March and first quarterly railroad earnings statements made a very favorable impression on the financial district, New York Central publishing the best quarterly earnings report in the history of that road.

Bearish traders made very little headway in their assaults on the motor and industrial stocks and prices were depressed.

A number of the specialty stocks which figured prominently in last year's market pyrotechnics returned to the active list today; these included Colorado Fuel & Iron, Davison Chemical, Freeport Texas, Cast Iron Pipe, etc.

The railroad stocks were neglected, and other important groups like the coppers, equipments, tobacco, sugars, independent steels and accessories' stocks sold in small volume after the first hour. Sales in the first three hours aggregated 675,000 shares against 1,000,000 in the same period yesterday. The commodity markets showed very little change, either in activity or price changes and the foreign exchanges were steady.

Churchill Places Tax on Betting

LONDON, April 27.—Whether or not Winston Churchill, Chancellor of the exchequer, will be able to "beat the bookmaker" and collect his proposed five per cent tax on betting was the subject of lively discussion among government official and race track followers today.

Churchill suggested the tax in outlining his plans for next year's budget.

Racing authorities gloomily predicted that the tax will vastly increase street betting, which is illegal in Britain, and reduce attendance at the tracks. Churchill, however, is of the opinion that the tax will be as easy to collect as the income tax.

Philip Snowden, who was chancellor of the exchequer in 1924, said that "the betting tax will arouse the hostility both of the betting community and of the moral sense of the nation."

The Times commended Churchill for not attempting to "conceal or minimize the serious character of our financial and economic situation."

The newspaper added that the nation should bear in mind Churchill's warning that a coal strike or any industrial upheaval would upset all calculations.

SPURNS FORTUNE FOR MAN SHE LOVES.

Cleveland, Ohio, April 27.—Mary Kasnic, a pretty 19 year old grocery clerk, today made known her decision to spurn a fortune of $175,000 so she could marry the man of her choice.

In a will left by her uncle, Glenn K. Kasnic, Nebraska rancher, Miss Kasnic was bequeathed the money on the condition she marry Frank Duellman, 28, of Omaha. She has two years to make up her mind under the terms of the will.

The will further provides that if Miss Kasnic refuses to marry Duellman, the $175,000 will go to him.

"I don't love Frank," Mary said today. "I am in love with a young Cleveland man and all the money in the world doesn't tempt me."

The pretty heiress was at work today, weighing sugar, handling eggs, wrapping groceries and making change as though fortune were not in her grasp.

AMERICAN CHARGED WITH OFFENSE AGAINST PREMIER.

Rome, April 27.—Charged with an offense against the premier, John Adams Abbott, an American tourist who gave his address in the United States as Concord, was arrested today.

Abbott had quarreled with a guide who entered charges against him with the police. Abbott denied the charges.

Under a recent law, derogatory remarks made against the Italian government or the premier are punishable by fines or jail sentences. An Englishman, employed in a Florence pharmacy, was recently confined to jail for some time and finally deported for alleged derogatory remarks concerning Mussolini.

DESIRES TO SEE HIS SWEETHEART CAUSES ARREST.

New York, April 27.—Because of a desire to see his sweetheart, Stanley Yosko, twenty-five, is behind the bars, and must stand trial in Hudson Falls, New York, where he is charged with complicity in looting the Hudson Falls National Bank of $16,500 on February 16, last.

Three of the gang concerned with the job were apprehended and sentenced to serve 25-year sentences in Dannemora Prison. Yosko has been under suspicion and the police have been shadowing his movements. He was arrested when he met her in Grand Central Station today.

The police refused to disclose the identity of the young woman.

INVESTIGATE INJURY TO BOSTON SALESMAN

Albany, N. Y., April 27.—Police were asked today to investigate the injury of William K. White, 45, of 232 Summer street, Boston, who is in a critical condition at the Memorial Hospital here. He was found unconscious late yesterday in his room at a hotel here. His wife was notified and upon her arrival today she asked local authorities to investigate the case.

White, a salesman for the Doubleday Page Company and the Diamond Publishing Company of Boston, is suffering from a fractured skull according to hospital attendants.

Famous Dominican Is Dead.

Boston, April 27.—The Very Rev. John B. O'Connor, O. P. S., preacher general of the Dominican order and known throughout the United States, died at St. Elizabeth's Hospital today following a lingering sickness. Surviving brothers are Charles F. O'Connor, former Boston school committee man, and Patrick H. O'Connor, former state senator.

Flood Continues at Ontario.

ONTARIO, Ont., April 27.—Flood today continued to do great damage to highways between this city and Montreal, with the road between Kingston and Prescott reported as being two feet of water. Other districts reported rivers as having reached a flood stage.

Candle Economy

Place candles in the refrigerator for a couple of days before lighting and they will burn twice as long. It will also prevent the wax trickling down over the candlestick.

Whittemore Jury Is Still Out

Jury Returns to Court This Morning and Hears Evidence of Two Witnesses Read to Them—Resume Deliberations Following Lunch.

Buffalo, N. Y., April 27.—The Whittemore jury was still out early this afternoon having had the case in its hands since 6:45 o'clock last evening.

Richard Reese Whittemore, the bandit on trial, is accused of the slaying of two Buffalo bank officials in a $23,000 pay car hold-up on October 29, 1925.

Disagreement existing among the jurors brought its members into court at 10:25 o'clock this morning with a request that the evidence of Basil V. Kraft, printer, and B. Bradley Lansill, salesman, be read to them.

This was done, requiring an hour and ten minutes.

At 11:35 the jurors went back into the jury room and resumed their deliberations.

At 12:30 o'clock Justice Noonan adjourned court until 2 o'clock, and five minutes later the jury left its rooms and went to lunch.

Odds Over Identification.

From the request that the evidence be read, it was apparent that some of the jurors up to that hour were at odds with others as to the sufficiency of the prosecution's identification of the "Coney Kid" as the shooting bandit who was seen at the Bank of Buffalo holdup.

Another indication of disagreement came during the period the jury was in court. Rosecoe C. Stacey, who is foreman of the jury, had the Kraft evidence read in full and the people's evidence from Lansill read.

"I think we have cleared up what we had in mind," he then said.

But George F. Christ, jurymen No. 7, was not fully satisfied. He asked that the cross-examination of Lansill be read and it was. Then at 11:35 the jury again went into its room to deliberate.

Last Night's Session.

Last night after it received the case at 6:45 o'clock the jury had dinner and then spent five hours wrestling with its problem. At 10:45 o'clock the arbiters of Whittemore's fate went to the Hotel Statler where they slept under guard of deputy sheriffs. This morning they breakfasted early and were back in the city hall jury room at 8:30 o'clock. In the two hours session before they asked instructions it was rumored several ballots were taken with indecisive result. The jurors discussed their differences of opinion and finally decided to have reading of the evidence to clear up disputed points.

Heads Evidence.

This reading by Stenographer John Sisy brought out again the positive identifications by Kraft from his second story window and Lansill as he drove past the hold-up in his automobile that Whittemore was the bandit who loitered about the bank entrance before the hold-up and later, gun in hand, was seen by Kraft on the getaway car, while Lansill saw him running into the street, gun in hand, from the bank money car.

But in Kraft's testimony he said he saw no other car driving through the street but the cars of the bank and the bandits. He did not see Lansill's car as far as his evidence on the record discloses. And in his cross-examination it was remarked by defense counsel Sumner that he put Whittemore as the front man of the two who stood on the bank car while it made a getaway and Russell, the other printer witness who saw the hold-up from a second story window, placed them just the opposite.

Whether this was what the jury was after was not explained.

Tiger Girl Confident.

Mrs. Whittemore and R. V. Whittemore, the bandit's bride and father, sat in the front seat of the court room all morning.

"I am confident Dick will be acquitted," said the Tiger Girl after the jury had listened to the reading of the record.

An unidentified woman came to court this morning and gave Mrs. Whittemore a handsome bouquet. She whispered a few words of encouragement in her ear.

As Whittemore passed his wife on his trip back to jail he nodded and gave her a signal with one of his manacled hands. She nodded back.

NO WORD FROM THE FREIGHTER SUDFEO

New York, April 27.—No further word had been received today of the freighter Sudfeo, overdue at the Panama Canal since March 22, by her owners, the Transmarine Corporation of Port Newark, N. J.

The ship was commanded by Captain T. Turner and carried a crew of twenty-eight men.

The Suboteco and the Sugaroseco, sister ships, have kept a close lookout for the Sudfeo. It was reported, "Hope of finding the vessel is remote," said an executive of the Transmarine corporation.

The Sudfeo left Port Newark for Pacific Coast ports on March 12.

FIRE DESTROYS

Quincy, Mass., April 27.—Fire that for a time threatened other nearby buildings, today destroyed the icehouse of the Granite City Ice Cream Company here.

Hundreds of motorists from the south shore were detained when they were held up by the fire. Police soon reached the scene and diverted the traffic over another street.

Convicted River Recedes.

Springfield, Mass., April 27.—With the cool, dry weather of the past few days, danger of the Connecticut River reaching a flood stage, seemed to have passed today. The river was reported to be receding in all sections.

Donahue in Charge of Olive Highway

Town Board Approves Appointment of Foreman for Construction of Tongore-Awood Highway, and Work Can Now Proceed.

Clarence Donahue has been appointed foreman in charge of construction of the Tongore-Awood town highway by County Superintendent James F. Loughran and the appointment has been approved by the town board of Olive which must sanction the action of the county superintendent. Work will be resumed on the road. The approval of the appointment of Mr. Donahue was given by the town board of Olive at a meeting held Saturday.

The county share of the money for the construction of the road will now be turned over and used for the completion of the highway. This money has been held up by the refusal of the 1925 town board to approve the man named by the county superintendent.

Last fall just prior to election Judge John G. Van Etten appeared in the Supreme court and made application to the court for immediate relief. At that time he demanded that Mr. Loughran appoint a foreman of construction who would meet with the approval of the town board. Prior to that time a name had been certified to the town board and the board refused to approve the man.

The board in turn recommended that the elected town superintendent of highways be appointed by the county superintendent. This Mr. Loughran refused to do, holding that under the law the man appointed as foreman of a town road must devote his entire attention to the road under construction and if the elected town superintendent was appointed he would not be able to attend to the construction job unless he neglected the office to which he had been elected.

The board refused to approve the name of Alvin Markle who was named by Mr. Loughran and asked that Town Superintendent Boice be appointed to the job.

When there was no agreement as to the foreman of the work, the county superintendent refused to release the county share of the money for the road, and the town claimed that it had expended its share of $3,323 and still owed for labor. The expenditure of the town's share of the money before a foreman had been appointed and approved Mr. Loughran held was illegal.

John W. Kelder is the present town superintendent of highways of Olive, having succeeded Mr. Boice as the result of the last election.

PEOPLE'S RECONSTRUCTION LEAGUE IN SESSION

Washington, April 27.—Questions ranging from intervention in Mexico to the Capper-Johnson Universal Draft Bill were discussed today at a convention of the People's Reconstruction League describing what he termed the "crisis in Mexico." Herbert J. Browne charged that "powerful corporate interests and concentrated capital" were behind the "threatened interference in Mexico by the United States Government," "aiming about a restoration of the foreign corporate abuses which had been overthrown as a result of the Mexican revolution."

A vigorous defense of the universal draft bill was made by John Thomas Taylor, of the American Legion, while it was opposed by Fred J. Libby and Ed Keating. The latter asserted the pending bill would permit the government to commandeer the manpower of the nation in case of war, but gave no guarantee that the wealth of the nation would be similarly drafted.

PARCEL POST HELPS AMERICAN PRODUCERS

Washington, April 27.—Quick delivery to foreign markets by parcel post is helping American producers gain a stronger hold on world markets, the department of commerce announced today.

Parcel post exporting amounted to $26,952,000 last year, an increase of $4,652,000 over 1925. These figures do not include several million packages sent abroad by retailers valued at under $25 each.

Silk wearing apparel and other feminine garments dependent for sale upon display in foreign markets before the fashion change made up $2,655,000 of the parcel post. More than a million dollars' worth of fountain pens were exported by this method.

HOLD TWO MEN IN QUINCY MURDER

Quincy, April 27.—Two men were held by police today as suspects in connection with the death of Joseph Barry, whose body was found yesterday in Town Brook.

After an autopsy, Medical Examiner Fred E. Jones, of Quincy, announced that there was no water in the lungs, indicating that the man was dead when placed in the water. When found the body bore no marks and no clues to the head.

Despatches From Foreign Parts

Moscow, April 27.—While the Moskva river is subsiding and flood conditions are less menacing, the upper Volga is now leaving its banks. Many cities and villages along the Volga are already inundated and ten thousand persons have fled from their homes.

Mexico City, April 27.—Compulsory bathing ended the life of Jose Nara, an aged beggar. The city recently inaugurated compulsory baths for beggars, newsboys and pawns. Jose was caught in the net. He protested he was seventy years old, too old to experiment with bathing. Over his protest he was put beneath the showers. He died the next day.

Tokio, April 27.—Members of the Japanese Diet are campaigning for an increase in their own salaries. They have proposed a bill doubling their salaries, with 250 members supporting it, but the bill has been withdrawn due to government opposition.

Berlin, April 27.—A number of arrests have been made as the result of police allegations that a syndicate exists in Berlin to stage "fake robberies" in order that business men may cheat insurance companies.

London, April 27.—Miss 1926 has been frequently attacked for wearing too little but now comes Dr. E. Graham Little, M. P., who says that modern youth wears too much. The modern youth injures his health by wearing "a large quantity of underhead impediments which fashion prescribes for him," said Dr. Little.

Peculiar Tree Formation
The name "bottle-tree" is applied to trees having trunks resembling bottles. The Australian bottle-tree is the most common. It has a short bottle-like trunk and dense foliage. Natives utilize the tree by making nets of the fibers and by using the sap in the stem as a drink.

Arrests in Milk Scandal

New York, April 27.—With T. J. Clougher, who was secretary to Dr. Frank J. Monaghan, former health commissioner, held without bail charged with malfeasance in office and bribery, more arrests were promised today in connection with the alleged city-wide milk graft ring.

Clougher is alleged to have been the "fixer" in the milk and food extortion syndicate and authorities predict his arrest will lead to "the man higher up."

"POLSKA POTRAWA"
THE MYSTERY DISH.

Feature of Parish Supper at Polish Catholic Church.

For the fourth time the Polish Church appears this year with an appetizing menu prepared diligently by the ladies of the Holy Rosary, the auxiliary of the Polish Church, to receive all friends and guests at the Polish School Auditorium Wednesday night from 5 to 9, daylight saving time. The low price is still maintained as one of the ground rules of the always successful parish suppers and the menu, as follows, shows another "mystery dish," which, prepared in a special way, will be found very palatable to the exclusive set of friends that yearly like to come and mix as friends together and help a worthy cause in the midst of the city of Kingston, the parish school, with the regents:

"Poliska Potrawa" Potatoes Pressed French Peas Celery Sweet Pickles Coffee Iced Cake

The committee of ladies is composed of the efficient good members of the parish: Mrs. F. Potoczny, Mrs. M. Charnotek and Mrs. A. Klonowska. heading the supper committee. Door committee: Mrs. A. Kaminska and Mrs. W. Rackowska. Ticket committee: Mrs. A. Bubole and Mrs. T. Klonowska. Ice cream and cakes in charge of Mrs. B. Stockhouse, Mrs. K. Gardecka and Mrs. K. Rylewicz. Check room: Mrs. K. Walczak and Mrs. A. Melachowicz. Aiding the supper committee will be Mrs. A. Janeczek, Mrs. A. Kreglewski, Mrs. Z. Kwasnik, Mrs. E. Klim, Mrs. W. Lukasewski and Mrs. A. Lukasewski. The following members of the Holy Rosary Society volunteering to serve at the tables as the reception committee: Mrs. W. Miller, Mrs. R. Brown, Mrs. E. Tucker, Mrs. J. O'Neil, Mrs. S. Prusack, Mrs. M. Nowak, Mrs. A. Augustyn, Mrs. W. Geronowicz, Mrs. M. Larkin, Mrs. M. Prusack, Mrs. E. Gill, Mrs. M. Lukasewski and the Misses M. Demski, M. Kolano, F. Kaczor and M. Grabiec. Zucca's Singing Orchestra from 8 to 12. All welcome and invited.

OLIVE BRIDGE. Olive Bridge, April 27.—The many friends of Lorenzo Beemer are very glad to learn that he is steadily improving.

The schools of this vicinity were closed on Tuesday as the teachers were called upon to attend the conference at Phenicia.

John Kelder, Grover Winchell and John Darling have each purchased a Freeman radio of C. A. Lyons of Ashokan.

The Misses Julia Clark and Nellie Marshall spent Saturday in New York city.

Horace Dymond of Palentown is employed at Grover Winchell's doing some carpenter work.

Mrs. Mary Marshall has erected a fine new brooder house which she expects will be filled to its capacity with young chicks soon.

Basil Beemer and several of the young men of this vicinity are busily engaged improving the public highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Slime Merrihew and son of Krumville spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Grover Winchell.

Justin Bell and family, who have been spending the winter with Mrs. Mary Marshall, have moved to Ashokan for the summer.

Legion Minstrels Again Tonight

Large and Enthusiastic Audience Made Evening of Mirth Provided by American Legion Boys For Benefit of Legion Memorial and City Hospital.

The American Legion Minstrels and Revue, for the joint benefit of the American Legion Memorial Building and the Kingston City Hospital Building Fund, scored a big hit Monday night and will play again tonight at the Kingston High School Auditorium at 8:15 o'clock, daylight saving time. Tickets will be for sale at the door. The doors will open about 7 o'clock. Everybody is invited to attend. There are no reserved seats.

The performance Monday night was enthusiastically greeted by a highly amused and entertained audience. The quality and quantity of the applause with which the different features of the big show were met shows that it made a great hit. The entire show was pronounced by the critics on the side lines as one of the best amateur performances ever shown in Kingston.

Tonight's show will be even better than Monday night's and those who missed Monday night's performance are invited to come tonight to get an evening packed with good music, good singing, funny jokes, and genuine fun and entertainment. The five-act revue, following the minstrel, is alone worth the price of admission. This must be seen to be appreciated. The net profit will be equally divided between the American Legion and Kingston City Hospital.

With Thomas F. Coughlin as interloper the minstrels started promptly at 8:15 o'clock and from then until the final drop of the curtain there was not a dull moment. The end men were especially good. The premier ends were Thomas Dolan and Dick Bernard.

After the opening chorus William DeKoskie sang in fine voice "The Lonesome Girl in Town," which was encored.

John Pailist, one of the ends, put over "It Don't Do Nothing But Rain," which made a big hit. Joe Moore followed with "I'm Going to Let the Bumble Bee Be," which was given in regular end man style.

Leon Carey rendered "Just a Cottage Small by a Waterfall," in a pleasing manner and was encored.

Vincent VanBramer, another of the ends, gave a dance and song, "Poor Papa," that proved a hit. His was followed by Harry Zellmer who sang "Always," one of the best ballads of the evening.

A Messenger, another end, sang "Dinah" and was good.

Dick Bernard's song, "Wimmin," was excellent, as was the solo and quartet "Since You Called Me Sweetheart," by Martin Dunn and the American Legion Quartet.

"I Certainly Could" was put over by Endman Boss while J. Cullum sang "Too Many Parties and Too Many Pals."

Tom Dolan's song was "Sweet Child" which was one of the hits of the evening.

Between the various songs the endmen discussed the weather, women and other topics of interest.

The entire first part was put over with a snap and vim that was noteworthy, and all of those taking part deserve great credit.

The Revue followed after a selection by Malsenhider's orchestra of ten pieces in charge of Harry G. Malsenhider.

The first act was James Sottile and Joseph Carpio in "Charleston a la Carte" which was but a taste of the good things that followed.

Fred Van Deusen, the local magician, gave one of the finest programs of magic seen on a local stage in a number of years. Many of his illusions were brand new and seen for the first time here.

Dick Bernard and James Winters presented a sketch, "Hair Cuts and Pinups," that was a scream, and was followed by Arthur Floyd in xylophone solos that were especially good.

The revue was brought to a close with a dancing exhibition by Miss Helen Cashion and Vincent VanBramer, who proved exceptionally clever and graceful.

The entire performance was one of the best amateur shows ever given in Kingston, and those who did not see it Monday night should not neglect to do so this evening.

DAIRY

PLANT SOY BEANS WITH CORN CROP

The combination of corn and soy beans for silage produced an average increase of approximately one ton of green forage, or 600 pounds of dry matter per acre, as compared with corn alone, in four years of experiments conducted by the agricultural experiment station at Storrs, Conn. The amount of additional protein per acre supplied by the addition of soy beans was figured as equivalent to 800 pounds of 40 per cent cotton seed meal.

The largest total yields of grain and dry matter under Connecticut conditions were produced by growing one stalk of corn to three of beans in every 12 inches of the row. Drilling the corn and soy beans proved decidedly better than planting both in the same hill, or planting the beans between the stalks of corn. Eighteen different varieties of soy beans were tried and the best variety was a stiff-stemmed, reasonably tall, large yielding variety, which will have its pods two-thirds filled when the corn is ready to be cut.

One question which has been argued a good deal is whether or not the planting of soy beans with the corn increases the nitrogen content of the corn crop the same season. No such increase was noted in these studies.

It was considered not desirable to grow soy beans alone and corn alone, mixing the two as they are put into the silo. Growing them together as a silage combination added a value of approximately $10 per acre to the silage crop.

Best and Cheapest Way to Maintain Dairy Herd

The problem of what is the best and cheapest way to maintain a herd of dairy cows is always before the man who produces milk. It is practically impossible to give a standard set of rules which will apply in all cases. The method used in maintaining a herd must largely be determined by the individual, recognizing the contributing factors.

A dairy herd may be maintained by continued purchase of mature animals to replace those whose period of usefulness has passed. There are many conditions under which this may be a wise practice. If it is desirable to have the whole herd composed of cows in their full productive capacity; if there is abundant opportunity for selection and purchase near at hand; if there is a reasonably good market for cows that are undesirable, and if one has reasonable skill in selecting, and good ability in bargaining, a herd of high-productive capacity may be more easily and more cheaply maintained in this way than by attempting to raise young animals to replace those that are worn out.

Superior Grain Mixture Recommended by Purdue

A satisfactory grain mixture commonly fed in Indiana for milk production is recommended by L. H. Fairchild of Purdue university. It is made up of four parts ground corn, two parts ground oats, two parts bran and one part timothy or alfalfa, all by weight. Plenty of legume hay will reduce the need of alfalfa. Roughage consisting of nonlegume hay and corn stover needs at least two parts of some high protein concentrate to balance.

Corn silage, alfalfa, clover or soybean hay and a grain mixture of four parts ground corn, two parts ground oats and one part ground soy beans provide all the nutrients necessary for economical production. A grain mixture of corn and oats or corn and wheat bran is not complete because of lack of protein. Cottonseed meal, flaxseed oil meal or ground soy beans can be used to bring up the protein content.

Dairy Notes

*****

Feed a cow all the roughage she will eat.

Protein and minerals are necessary in building muscle and bone as well as in producing milk.

Clean milk requires sanitary conditions. Clean barns and clean cows are the first essentials.

A thin cow with "lumps," enlarged glands about the udder, is always open to suspicion of having tuberculosis.

*****

A very heavy increase in the use of milking machines has been noted in the last few years throughout the country.

*****

Cottonseed meal should not be used in too large quantities. About two pounds per cow per day is all that it is safe to feed.

*****

Pure-bred sires must be used, that will improve the herd from the standpoint of production. Proper feeds must be grown and fed so that maximum results will be obtained.

The Proposed Broadway Theatre As A Business Proposition

*****

The money-making opportunity for a large modern theatre on Broadway is so unusually good that were we, the people of Kingston and Ulster County, to neglect it at this time, it would be the inviting of chain theatre operators to locate here, to capitalize on this opportunity.

My plan is to have local people share in the profits of a fine big modern playhouse, and to bring here the best of productions, such as we want to see.

Let us go about this job quickly and have a theatre that will be a Kingston proposition. We can own it, operate it, and divide the profits.

A $200 seven per cent debenture bond gives you one share of common stock which should earn over $14 each year.
